Dear Newsletter Committee Member:

Attached is a copy of a report which I will submit to Carol Billings in Chicago. The report focuses on three issues which need to be resolved prior to the next volume of the newsletter. Please review the report and let me know what your reactions are to the various issues.

Also, I hope that each of you want to continue with the Newsletter Committee. This past year has been a good experience and I expect that we can provide the membership with better newsletters during 1987/88.

Thanks. Please see me in Chicago or send me a note regarding your interest in the 1987/88 Newsletter staff.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Tim", with a stylized flourish at the end.
